Expressing my appreciation

I want to start by saying thank you to all of the celebrities, heads of state, wealthy individuals, CEOs of major corporations, kings and queens, princes and princesses, potentates, hiring managers, and bank officials who have placed their trust in me with regard to their personal financial wealth and the need to transfer it to or from the US in order to protect it from the people have taken over their country, company, lives, or what have you. Your placement of trust in my integrity and honesty as well as my ability to hold close the confidential information you have provided, and to not tell the FBI, and to move vast sums of money around the world through my personal accounts is greatly appreciated. And I hope I can justify that trust.

I know how personal this is to you in your time of need

We are all suffering from COVID-19, the stress it places upon us all, the loss of family members, and of course it hits the royals more than the rest of us because of their critical role in keeping the traditions and hopes of their countries, which they and their families have held true to even through revolutions, war, and famine. Just as the Ebola crisis and the financial crisis hit them hard before and affected so many of the rest of us as well, the present crisis demands immediate action to save lives and fortunes.

My relatives' last will and testament are indeed important to me

I cannot thank you enough for letting me know about the many relatives that I have and that I never knew existed before, and who have left me some of the remains of their vast fortunes after their untimely deaths. My depth of feelings for them only came to be realized by me after you told me of how generous and thoughtful they were in their last hours as they clinged to life to identify me as one of the few they could entrust with the rewards of their life's work. I only wish I could have known them when they were still alive and vigorous.

My heart explodes with joy hearing from you

I cannot underestimate the extent to which it fills my heart to know that there are people like you out there, thinking of me and my interests, and without fear or trepidation, going that extra mile to help me do better in my life. And I am ashamed that I have failed to mention until now all of the others you must also be helping through your generous nature. You deserve some sort of award for your efforts to help the world.

I have decided to will my remaining assets to you as appreciation

My family, as good as they are to me and for me, will be overjoyed to hear that I have chosen to donate all that I have remaining in this world to you who have done so much for so many.

Conclusions

In order to make certain that you get your just rewards from your lives of helping others and assure that my life's work can help to sustain yours, I will need to know how to get my money to you and make certain it doesn't fall into the wrong hands. Send me your name and address so I can have a courier hand deliver your rewards to you. My thoughts are with you. FC
